Microgeneration

John Moriarty 0207 215 1969 john.moriarty@berr.gsi.gov.uk He is the man involved with the policy at the business enterprise and regulatory reform (BERR) department associated with microgeneration. (sent email)

Sally Millward sally.millward@berr.gsi.gov.uk (sent email) micro.generation@berr.gsi.gov.uk.

The way to sell it to him is:

1. He will want to hear that the companies can sell the ROCs, carbon emission, carbon footprint for individual houses, carbon market.
2. He will want to hear that he will be needed as part of working out the policy and regulation.
3. Potential of getting things done much more rapidly.

BERR

Has a major site about energy with contacts:

<http://www.berr.gov.uk/energy/page30323.html>

many of the contacts are now in DECC.

Government have an Energy and Climate security panel:

(specifically to advise Gov on questions that they have put).

Renewable Energy Strategy Consultation:

<http://renewableconsultation.berr.gov.uk/consultation>

(basically everyone would like something done!) A lot of worry about the difficulty in actually getting things done because of planning problems.

Energy Act 2008

<http://www.statutelaw.gov.uk/legResults.aspx?LegType=All+Legislation&title=energy&searchEnacted=0&extentMatchOnly=0&confersPower=0&blanketAmendment=0&TYPE=QS&NavFrom=0&activeTextDocId=3540328&PageNumber=1&SortAlpha=0> (basically to say that the Government can decide when energy production can take place and when it should be stopped. Also demanding a specific change in the amount of renewable energy that should be involved)

Planning Act 2008

<http://www.statutelaw.gov.uk/legResults.aspx?LegType=All+Legislation&title=planning&Year=2008&searchEnacted=0&extentMatchOnly=0&confersPower=0&blanketAmendment=0&TYPE=QS&NavFrom=0&activeTextDocId=3535444&PageNumber=1&SortAlpha=0> (the aim of this was to make it outside normal planning restrictions for specific types of energy production to take place e.g. nuclear power stations, offshore wind turbines etc. It does not apply to wind farms on land. Basically it wants to make it much easier and quicker for it all to take place).

Climate change projects office at BERR via 0207 215 5000. See 3 contacts. All at lunch when I tried earlier. Vicky Elliott 0207 215 1608, Jed Jones 3748, Terry Martin 1102. Basically they are aimed at foreign places where the burning of anything is stopped and replaced with the use of local electricity generation. Not that helpful. The aim being to allow UK carbon credits by giving the foreign countries the equipment.

Department of Energy and Climate Change:

This is a section of BERR that is now at a different address.
e.g. Chris Barton
Director and Head of UK renewable energy strategy projects
Dept Energy and Climate Change.

2. How does this fit with ROCs (MSc) and FITs
3. Phil Webber. In fact he is the chairman of the Scientists for Global Responsibility. phil.webber@kirklees.gov.uk ?? He has done a lot on the policy concerning energy making.
4. Stephen DeSouza (BERR) involved with the policy concerning ROCs and changing of directive systems so that microgeneration can be a major factor. stephen.desouza@berr.gsi.gov.uk 020 7215 6113 (in fact he is in charge of Steve Mitchell and John Moriarty: see <http://biographies.parliament.uk/engine.asp?engine.asp?lev1=0&lev2=0&menu=1&ShowPage=body&Body=27087>)
5. Gareth Evans (Ofgem) rang back about the potential of the idea that I had put forward and asked for further information to go via him. He understood all about FITs and ROCs but was quite adamant that Ofgem could not change policies but rather just carry them out. He knew his thing and gave me DeSouza's contact at BERR.
